

TWO DEAD IN BLAST
HONORED BY SAIGON

Special to The New York Times

SAIGON, South Vietnam, April 1—At the Saigon Airport chapel Thursday the South Vietnamese Foreign Minister, Tran Van Do, pinned medals of gallantry and honor on the coffins of an American woman and a Filipino serving in the Navy who were killed in the terrorist attack on the United States Embassy Tuesday.

Miss Barbara A. Robbins was awarded the Medal of Honor First Class. The citation noted that Miss Robbins, who worked in the office of special assistant to the United States Ambassador, arrived in Vietnam last August.

The award praised her "native enthusiasm, extensive experience and specialized knowledge."

Manolito W. Castillo, United States Navy Storekeeper 2d Class, who was killed while doing an errand in the Embassy, was awarded the Military Merit Medal and the Cross of Gallantry with Palm.

Leading the American representatives at the ceremony was Deputy Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson.
